

2011 PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

David Shohoney has been awarded the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) and Certified Professional Collector (CPC) from BCMA's Credentialing Standards Board in April. David has over 13 years of experience in customer service, collections and credit, payments, Management and Supervising positions as well as dealing with delinquent accounts. Mr. Shohoney acquired his Associates of Business Administration from Dekalb College and his Bachelor of Business Administration; Major Finance and Marketing from University of Wisconsin Oshkosh.

Cynthia Schultz, has been awarded the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) and Certified Professional Collector (CPC) from BCMA's Credentialing Standards Board in April. Cynthia has over 42 years of experience in cashiering, accounts payable, A/R billing & collections, liens and small claims. Ms. Schultz has been a very active member with the Association for over 20 years including helping to run and monitor meetings.

Jessica Coan, A-Z Industries, Inc has earned the professional designation of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) from BCMA's Credentialing Standards Board in April. Jessica has over 11 years of experience in management, training employees, establishing procedures, Credit & collections. Ms. Coan finished a few classes and has been working on her Bachelor of Applied Science degree.

Lisa Rusch has been awarded the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) and Certified Professional Collector (CPC) from BCMA's Credentialing Standards Board in December. Lisa has worked in business-to-business collection and credit over 22 years. Ms. Rusch has been very involved in Industry group and education chapter leadership.

