

2014 PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Matthew Turnquist has earned the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) in May. Mr. Turnquist has 6 years' experience in Finance and Risk Analysis, finding solutions for Non Standard Sales Agreements, and all aspect of bankruptcies. Matthew attended UW-Madison and received his degree in Finance, as well as attending UW-Whitewater to obtain his MBA in Finance & Management.

Jamie Cecil has earned the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) & Certified Professional Collector (CPC) in May. Ms. Cecil has 14+ years' experience in banking, collections, leadership, and accounts receivable. Jamie is a solid performer in Credit & Collection and doing a wonderful job in building a career. Ms. Cecil attended UW-Green Bay for a Municipal Clerk & Treasurer certification, as well as attending Upper Iowa University and is working on obtaining her BA degree in Financial Management.

Michael Dennis has earned the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) & Certified Professional Collector (CPC) in July. Mr. Dennis has spent his entire career in B2B, credit collections A/R. He has been a mentor and trainer his entire career. Michael is a frequent and popular Webinar presenter for the Association. Mr. Dennis attended California State University at Long Beach and received his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, as well as going back to school attending Pepperdine University and receiving his Master Degree in Business Administration.

Alysia Hedrick, has earned the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) & Certified Professional Collector (CPC) in September. Ms. Hedrick has spent nearly 24 years in Business Credit & Collections. She took advantage of training opportunities to become District Credit Manager who is responsible for multiple brands at her company. In addition to earning her accreditations through the Credentialing Standards Board, Alysia also earned her CBA.

Ang Curro, has earned the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) in September. Ms. Curro is a smart lady who has progressed over the past 10 years from Accounts Receivable to Credit manager of a small company. Ang strives to learn, get ahead and progress in her career.

Melissa Hammerand, has earned the professional designations of Certified Credit Professional (CCP) & Certified Professional Collector (CPC) in October. Ms. Hammerand, has over 20 years' experience working with customers, A/R duties, Customer service, and collections. Melissa attended Clinton Community College and received her Associate of Arts Business management. Ms. Hammerand also has been very involved in the IA Construction group both as a creator and an officer of the Goup.

