You have worked hard obtaining your judgment, but the judgment debtor will not voluntarily pay off the balance. We will discuss how to get paid, after the battle to judgment as well as enforcement litigation, including execution, levy and garnishment.

- What are your available methods of enforcing your judgment?
- What is your most cost-effective way of getting paid?
- What enforcement methods can you take without an attorney?
- What are the best ways of locating assets?
- If forced to take payment over time, are there ways to ensure payment?

Please join us to learn about the best steps to take following obtaining your judgment and the most effective methods on getting paid on your judgment.
