

Askee: Sue

QUESTION: We are thinking about changing credit card vendors and wanted to know what your other clients have been saying about the service, reliability, and cost savings they have received from using TSYS Merchant Solutions as their credit card processor.

RESPONSE: We have been using TSYS Merchant Solutions for many many years. They do all the Associations processing for credit cards and for EFT ach transactions. That is another great tool that A/R managers use that is extremely important and helpful. We do have a number of members that use TSYS also. Contact me for our reps info, so they can provides price quotes, service evaluation and is able to answer all the direct information you may need to transition from another credit card processor the TSYS.

I endorse this credit card processing company and we hope they have solutions for you at Frabill that will give you better service and save you money.